Accessibility Statement

This accessibility statement applies to: https://www.mandarinaduckfragrances.com/ (the “Website”).

Compliance status

The Website is partially compliant with the accessibility requirements of WCAG 2.1 – Level AA, due to the remaining non-conformities and limitations listed below:

- In certain hover states of the fragrance boxes on the homepage, the contrast between text and background may fall below the required minimum values, potentially reducing readability for users with low vision;
- Some decorative videos play automatically and may continue for more than five seconds without a dedicated control to pause, stop or hide the movement;
- The semantic heading hierarchy on the homepage is not fully optimal; at this stage, the current template structure does not allow a complete revision of the heading levels.

Testing limitation: Full menu navigation using Tab/Shift+Tab and the associated focus visibility could not be reliably tested in the environment used. Accordingly, no specific compliance assessment is provided for these aspects.

The other checks performed as part of the self-assessment included, among other things, text resizing to 200%, reflow, text spacing, page language, bypassing repeated blocks, form functionality and related status messages, text alternatives for key informative images, and basic keyboard navigation checks.
